Job Title: Youth Worker

Number of Posts, Contract Type: 1 x Full Time Ongoing (subject to funding)

Location(s): Wexford (Enniscorthy)

ABOUT FORÓIGE

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation enables young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. Foróige employs over 500 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high quality services to young people through the operation of over 400 Foróige Clubs, Foróige's Mentoring Programme and over 140 General Youth Services and Special Projects

ROLE INFORMATION

The successful candidate will be employed by Foróige as a Youth Officer. The Waterford Wexford Integrated Youth and Family Project is a new service provided by Foróige, in partnership with Túsla. The service offers structured support to identified at-risk young people and families in counties Wexford and Waterford.

The project implements a model of working with vulnerable young people and families and to provide specialist intervention and support services in partnership with others for:

1. Identified young people, who are at risk of reception into care.
2. Young people who are in foster care and approaching disengagement.
3. Young people returning to their family of origin after a period of time in care.
4. Young people with identified additional needs or levels of risk.
5. Parents and siblings of those engaged.

This service aims to meet a clearly identified need to respond in a comprehensive, holistic way to the needs of vulnerable young people and their families. Interventions that are delivered are experiential, developmental, resilience building programmes designed to promote positive coping capacities and self-care in the face of stressful and difficult circumstances. Programmes range from one to one and group programmes with young people to parenting and whole family supports with a view to increased integration of the young person and family into the community. Referrals to the service will be made by Túsla.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

The successful candidate will be given an ongoing contract of employment. It must be understood however, that if the position becomes redundant at any time during the period of the contract or if the funding for the post is discontinued or a post holder fails to perform satisfactorily, employment may be terminated.

The duties of the Youth Officer in carrying out any functions, which may be involved in or arise out of the appointment, shall be as notified by the Area Manager, the board of Foróige and/or its Chief Executive. These duties will include but are not limited to:

- In consultation with Túsla, identification of the needs and strengths of young people and their families and developing case plans to respond to them effectively in accordance with Foróige's Policies and Procedures.

- Implementing developmental and educational programmes on a one-to-one or group basis with young people and their families, as appropriate.
- Attending case conferences and reviews, court appearances and regular meetings with key Túsla personnel including the Social Work team.
- Enlisting the support of parent/guardians, family members and others and enabling them to engage effectively with the young person in supporting behaviour change.
- Engaging effectively with parents/guardians and other family members to support them in their role with the young person.
- Assisting the young person and their families to access appropriate community and statutory services and resources.
- Facilitating the integration of the young person into the community through engaging them with local clubs, groups and organisations that suit their interests, build on strengths and meet their needs.
- Enabling vulnerable young people and their families to build skills such as personal effectiveness, self-efficacy, confidence, social competence and resilience.
- Enabling and empowering the young people to fully participate in their own development and that of their community.
- Enabling the project participants to explore the range of options available to them particularly with regard to education, training and/or employment.
- Building and maintaining effective working relationships with key stakeholders in the community.
- Compiling with the assistance of the area manager, reports, plans and any other relevant documentation, ensuring that deadlines are adhered to.
- Operating in compliance with Foróige policies, procedures and guidelines as instructed by Foróige management.
- Day to day administration and budget management as required.
- Any other duties that may be assigned from time to time.
