

The Foróige Charter of Rights

In Foróige, all young people will have the following rights:

The right to self-expression and freedom of speech

The right to kindness and respect

The right to be listened to and to have your views considered

The right to be safe from any type of bullying and threats to wellbeing

The right to equal participation

The right to contribute to and improve the world in some way

The right to develop your personality, interests, and abilities