

Job Title: Youth Worker

Number of Post(s) & Contract Type: 1, Fixed Purpose/Ongoing subject to funding

Location(s): Teenage Health Project, Coastal North Dublin - Skerries, Rush, Lusk and Balbriggan

About Foróige

At Foróige, you're not just taking on a job- you're joining a movement that empowers young people and transforms communities. With over 600 dedicated staff and thousands of volunteers, we work together to create impactful change through innovative programmes, clubs, and services.

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The purpose of the organisation is to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society.

About the Project

The Teenage Health Project is managed and provided by Foróige and funded by the HSE Sexual Health and Crisis Pregnancy Programme. The project concentrates on the development of self-esteem, communication and decision making skills of the young people involved. This is achieved by developing programmes that offer targeted, quality, flexible and sustainable youth work aiming to allow young people to achieve their full potential by strengthening their personal and social development. The target group are primarily young people aged to 12 to 18 years from across the Coastal North Dublin area. The project focuses on a programme called REAL U which is a personal development & sex education programme aimed at equipping young people with the skills, knowledge & confidence to develop healthy relationships.
