

Job Title: SCP Project Worker, Blakestown Mountview School Completion Programme

Number of Posts & Contract Type: 1 x Fixed Term Contract until August 2027

Location: Dublin 15

About Foróige

At Foróige, you're not just taking on a job- you're joining a movement that empowers young people and transforms communities. With over 600 dedicated staff and thousands of volunteers, we work together to create impactful change through innovative programmes, clubs, and services.

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The purpose of the organisation is to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society.

About the Project

The School Completion Programme is a targeted programme which aims to increase the numbers of children and young people staying in primary and post primary school and in doing so improve the number that successfully complete the Senior Cycle, or equivalent. The School Completion programme works with students aged 4-18. The focus of the Programme is to work with those who may be at risk of educational disadvantage through early school leaving.

The School Completion Programme aims to impact positively on school:

- Attendance
- Retention
- Participation

The School Completion Programme is a national programme, and an action under the Department of Education & Skills DEIS – 'Delivering Equality of Opportunity in School' Plan (2017). The Programme provides a range of local targeted interventions in disadvantaged schools and communities designed to support the retention of children and young people in education.

The School Completion Programme is funded by Tusla Educational Support Services. The project is operated and managed on behalf of the Local Management Committee by Foróige.

Key Responsibilities

There is a staff team comprising of Co-ordinators and project workers as well as sessional staff.

There is currently a vacancy for a full time school based project worker.

It should be understood however that while School Completion Programme project workers are primarily engaged to work with either primary or secondary level students, that duties cross between and across all of the schools and engagement may be required with older or younger students as part of the role as the need may arise.

The duties of the School Completion Programme Project Worker will include but are not limited to:

- Provision of direct, one to one and group supports and interventions to identified children and young people in the secondary schools and primary schools as part of the implementation and delivery of the School Completion Programme plan as set by the Local Management Committee and with the support of the Project Coordinator
- Organising and facilitating the provision of in-school, out-of-school, after school and holiday time supports and evidence informed programmes for identified children and young people
- Engaging the target group and supporting those children and young people to develop knowledge, skills, attitudes and behaviours in the areas of social and emotional literacy, personal effectiveness, school readiness and educational achievement to enable them to effectively participate in the school environment.
- Enabling and empowering pupils to participate in their formal education and other learning and development activities within the school environment.
- Working collaboratively with other Education and Welfare Services including Home School Community Liaison, Education and Welfare Officers, the School Care team, Principals and other professionals to identify the students to be engaged with the Project and to plan coordinated intervention for those children and young people across appropriate services to complement SCP interventions.
- Reporting to the programme Co-ordinator and the Local Management Committee as required.
- Keeping up to date with local, regional and national developments in the education and welfare sector, in relation to both policy and practice.
- Completing reports and other administrative tasks and recording procedures as required including attendance tracking and managing files in relation to students engaged.
- Following policies and procedures prescribed by Foróige in relation to child protection and other matters.
- Undertaking any other work relevant to the development of the programme as may arise.
