Job Title: Youth Officer

Number of Posts & Contract Type: 1 x Part Time (21 hours per week) Fixed Term Contract (End Date: 31/12/2027)

Location: Foróige Office, Creeslough, Co. Donegal

About Foróige

Foróige works with young people, their families, communities and schools; identifying the needs of young people and providing Youth Work responses to meet those needs. Our work is about development, empowering young people to develop their own abilities and attributes, to think for themselves, to make things happen and to contribute to their communities.

The Purpose of the organisation is to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. The Foróige Philosophy creates immense possibilities for the growth and development of young people. They can positively influence how young people see themselves and how they respond to situations.

About the Project

The project aims to enhance the life chances of the young people and to assist them to fulfil their potential. The project is managed by Foróige in partnership with Tusla, Child & Family Agency and combines the expertise of both agencies to deliver a community-based resource.

The project provides a range of developmental educational programmes and activities for young people in particular targeting young people who are at risk of or currently experiencing personal, educational, family or social difficulties including young people from identified areas of disadvantage, minority groups and those referred to the project. Young people are referred from Tusla and/or other referral sources.
Programmes are provided to enable young people develop knowledge, skills and attitudes particularly in the areas of personal effectiveness, social competence, character development, educational achievement and community development. Programmes are organised to address specific areas of need or of concern.

Tusla - the Child and Family Agency, established Child and Family Support Networks (CFSN's) as a core component of their National Service Framework. The North West Child and Family Support Network (CFSN) takes in Creeslough, Dunfanaghy, Portnablagh, Falcarragh, Gortahork, Gweedore, Tory, Burtonport, Aranmore, Dungloe, Doochary and Fintown.
