About Foróige

Foróige is the leading youth organisation in Ireland and has been working with young people since 1952. Our purpose is to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their development and in the development of society. Foróige is a registered charity.

We work with 50,000 young people aged 10-18 each year through volunteer-led clubs and staff-led youth projects. Foróige currently operates in 26 counties in Ireland, with 420 staff, 5,500 volunteers, over 600 Foróige and volunteer-led clubs, 160 youth projects and the Big Brothers Big Sisters mentoring programme. These community-based and community-supported initiatives are run throughout the country, in rural and urban environments, and generally in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies.

Foróige is an equal opportunity employer.

Project information

Training, Learning and Development focuses on a systematic approach to training staff and volunteers, building a culture of learning and development that meets organisational needs and matches training given with implementation on the ground, followed up with an ongoing process of quality assurance. Reporting to the Director of Programmes & Research, the successful candidate will be part of the Training, Learning and Development function of the organisation. The Training Officer supports and ensures best practice in relation to design, facilitation, evaluation and consultancy for a range of inservice training, programmes and initiatives under the remit of the Training, Learning and Development function within Foróige, particularly those focussed on Health & Well-being and Drug Prevention and Education.

Training facilitation is a blended approach, with the Training Officer role encompassing facilitating training in person, online and support to participants for self directed learning using LMS.
