About Foróige

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation aims to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. Foróige employs over 500 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high quality services to young people through the operation of over 600 Foróige Clubs and over 160 General Youth Services and Special Projects. These community-based and community-supported initiatives are run throughout the country, in rural and urban environments, and generally in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies. The organisation is a registered charity and is supported by a combination of statutory, philanthropic and corporate funding. Foróige is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to a policy of equality of opportunity in its employment practices.

Project Information

The Monaghan Integrated Youth Project offers a structured support to identified, at-risk young people and from time to time their families. The Project is funded by Tusla.

The Project provides specialist intervention and support services to:

- 1.) Young people with identified additional needs or levels of risk.
- 2.) Identified young people, who are at risk of reception into care.
- 3.) Young people who are in foster care and approaching disengagement.
- 4.) Parents and siblings of those engaged.

The project aims to meet a clearly identified need to respond in a comprehensive, holistic way to the needs of vulnerable young people and from time to time their families. Interventions that are delivered are experiential, developmental, resilience building programmes designed to promote positive coping capacities and self-care in the face of stressful and difficult circumstances.

Programmes include intensive one to one and group programmes with young people with a view to increased integration into the community. The project operates from a strengths based perspective. The work is primarily an outreach service meeting young people in their local community/environment.

Young people are referred to the Project through the Tusla Monaghan inter-agency youth forum referral assessment process/Senior Manager PPFS Manager Cavan and Monaghan. The Project consists of two full time staff members with a catchment area for County Monaghan.

This project aims to enable young people to address a wide range of issues, which are prevalent for them, and to increase their capacity in achieving their full potential in life. Specifically the project will work:

To provide specialised developmental programmes and outreach services to help young people learn new skills to deal with the difficult issues they face in their lives in constructive and resourceful ways.

To facilitate direct interventions for targeted young people and their families, which are needs and strengths led that will enable them to develop their capacity and inner strength to reconnect and integrate into their community.

To implement a range of programmes that will enable participants to develop intra personal skills to deal with their emotions and difficult experiences.

To enable participants to actively identify and generate solutions to their current adverse life circumstances.

To provide an integrated response to the needs of vulnerable young people and their families in the context of achieving better outcomes for the young person.

To aid the development of participants knowledge, skills and attitudes which will enhance their self-confidence and promote empathy with the ideas, attitudes and feelings of others.

To work with existing services to ensure that the best possible service is provided to respond positively to the needs of young people and their families.
