About Foróige

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation aims to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society.

Foróige employs over 400 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high-quality services to young people through the operation of over 600 Foróige Clubs and over 140 General Youth Services and Special Projects. These community-based and community-supported initiatives are run throughout the country, in rural and urban environments, and generally in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies.

The organisation is a registered charity and is supported by a combination of statutory, philanthropic and corporate funding. Foróige is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to a policy of Equality of Opportunity in its employment practices.

Project information

Foróige in partnership with Young Persons Probation Service is currently recruiting a Part-Time Youth Officer for the Westview Project. The project provides services that meet with the Day Care Centre Order requirements of the Children's Act 2001.

The Youth Officer will work as part of the Foróige team in Cork reporting to the West View Coordinator and an Assistant Manager in Cork. The West View Team in conjunction with Young Persons Probation develop and implement appropriate interventions for young people which reduce offending behaviour, facilitate stability, and promote progression. Engaging identified young people who have offended or are at risk of further offending in a process of learning and development that will enable them to examine their own actions and promote positive lifestyle choices that will protect them from involvement in criminal, harmful or socially unacceptable behaviours.

A provision of programmes catering for the young people under the age of 23 years who are under court order and who are of moderate to high risk of reoffending. The programmes and activities will meet the requirement of a Day Care Centre Order under Section 118 of the Children Act 2001 (as amended).

The selected activities / programmes would be part of an individual case plan designed to address the offending behaviour. At their core, the programmes will challenge offending behaviours, enhance social skills development and equip the young people in utilising their time in a positive and productive fashion. All of the work is carried out within the ethos of the Young Persons Probation and Foróige.
