About Foróige

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation aims to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. Foróige employs over 500 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high quality services to young people through the operation of over 600 Foróige Clubs and over 140 General Youth Services and Special Projects. These community-based and community-supported initiatives are run throughout the country, in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies. Foróige is a registered charity supported by a combination of statutory, philanthropic and corporate funding.

Foróige is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to a policy of Equality of Opportunity in its employment practices.

Project information

The YEW Project is a Youth Diversion Project (YDP) that supports and engages young people in Whitechurch/ Rathfarnham and surrounding areas.

Youth Diversion Projects are Community based, multi-agency youth crime prevention initiatives which seek to divert young people who have been involved in anti-social and/or criminal behaviour by providing suitable activities to facilitate learning and personal development, promote civic responsibility and improve long-term employability prospects. The projects work with young people who are at risk of becoming involved in anti-social and/or criminal behaviour. By doing so, the projects contribute to improving the quality of life within communities and enhancing Garda/community relations.

YEW Youth Diversion Project is part of a network of Youth Diversion Projects funded by the Department of Justice and the European Social Fund in conjunction with An Garda Síochána and managed by Foróige.

The Youth Justice Worker(s) will be employed by Foróige and will be given a contract of employment.
