About Foróige

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation aims to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. Foróige employs over 480 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high-quality services to young people through the operation of over 580 Foróige Clubs and over 150 General Youth Services and Special Projects. These community-based and community-supported initiatives are run throughout the country, in rural and urban environments, and generally in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies. The organisation is a registered charity and is supported by a combination of statutory, philanthropic and corporate funding. Foróige is an equal opportunity employer.

Project Information

Tusla - the Child and Family Agency, established Child and Family Support Networks (CFSN's) as a core component of their National Service Framework. The North West Child and Family Support Network (CFSN) takes in Creeslough, Dunfanaghy, Portnablagh, Falcarragh, Gortahork, Gweedore, Tory, Burtonport, Aranmore, Dungloe, Doochary and Fintown.

The youth work service in the North West CFSN area is funded by Tusla and is provided and managed by Foróige. The Project Worker will be employed by Foróige to develop and implement youth work programmes and interventions in the North West CFSN for young people aged 8 - 21. The work includes identification and recruitment of young people who present with different levels of needs from universal to those who present with more complex high-level situations. The work will involve the establishment and facilitation of group work and individual interventions, the development and implementation of programmes and the recruitment of adult volunteers.

This post includes a specific remit for the provision of a youth work service in the aftermath of the Creeslough tragedy taking in Creeslough, Dunfanaghy, Falcarragh and surrounding areas.

The Project Worker will target and engage those young people through outreach and centre-based work. The successful candidate will work as part of the Foróige team in the North West CFSN network and will report to the Project Leader and Manager of Foróige.

The Project Worker will be given a contract of employment by Foróige. It must be understood, however, that if the position becomes redundant at any time during the contract period or if the funding for the post is discontinued, or a post holder fails to perform satisfactorily, employment may be terminated

Key Responsibilities

The duties of the Project Worker shall be notified by the Organisation's National Council and/or its Chief Executive or nominee. These duties will include:

- a) Work with the communities and organisations in the North West CFSN network to identify the young people for the Project. This will include those who work in the Creeslough, Dunfanaghy, Falcarragh and surrounding areas impacted by the tragedy.
- b) Provide a range of youth work interventions including one-to-one structured support, group work interventions, outreach and centre-based activities to meet the needs and interests of young people in the CFSN area.
- c) Devise effective responses to the diversity of presenting needs within the community. These should include:
 - an ability to provide culturally appropriate interventions to young people from a range of ethnic minority, cultural and religious backgrounds,
 - work with young people who present with mental health or disability issues,
 - young people who present with challenging behaviour;
 - -an approach which demonstrates a clearly outlined ability to persevere when working with reluctant young people;
 - LGBTI supports.
- d) Signpost and refer onto other services including therapeutic services where appropriate.
- e) Provision of youth work interventions that are responsive to the range of presenting issues such as for example: mental health, safe socialising, on-line bullying.
- f) Fully engage with the range of Tusla services such as Prevention, Partnership and Family Support (PPFS), Meitheal and Tusla Social work teams.

- g) Actively collaborative with other providers of services for young people operating in the CFSN area.
- h) Be pro-active in embedding the principle of child and youth participation in the planning and implementation of work.
- i) Enlisting the support of volunteers and enable them to engage effectively with the target group in youth development activities.
