About Foróige

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation aims to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. Foróige employs over 400 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high quality services to young people through the operation of over 600 Foróige Clubs, the Big Brother Big Sister Programme and over 140 General Youth Services and Special Projects. These community-based and community-supported initiatives are run throughout the country, in rural and urban environments, and generally in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies. The organisation is a registered charity and is supported by a combination of statutory, philanthropic and corporate funding. Foróige is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to a policy of Equality of Opportunity in its employment practices.

Role information

The Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship (NFTE) is a world recognised, youth entrepreneurship education and development programme. The NFTE programme is committed to changing the lives of young people in disadvantaged communities by enabling them to develop core skills in business and enterprise, and in doing so helping them to unlock their individual talents and potential. NFTE's main objectives are to increase school completion and college attendance, promote self-belief, build communication skills and develop knowledge and interest in business. The NFTE programme is currently delivered in 23 counties in Ireland working with over 6000 young people and 240 NFTE trained teachers and youth workers who are called Certified Entrepreneurship Trainers.

Foróige has received funding through basis.point, an initiative of the Irish Funds Industry, to develop and grow the NFTE Programme in Ireland. The primary focus of this development will be in DEIS Schools in Cork.
