ABOUT FORÓIGE

Foróige is an independent, non-profit national voluntary youth organisation engaged in out-of-school youth development and education. The organisation aims to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and the development of society. Foróige employs over 400 staff and involves thousands of volunteers in the creation and delivery of high quality services to young people through the operation of over 600 Foróige Clubs, the Big Brother Big Sister Programme and over 140 General Youth Services and Special Projects. These community-based and community-supported initiatives operate throughout the country, in rural and urban environments, and generally in partnership with various voluntary and statutory agencies. The organisation is a registered charity and is supported by a combination of statutory, philanthropic and corporate funding. Foróige is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to a policy of Equality of Opportunity in its employment practices.

PROJECT INFORMATION

The West Iveragh Youth Service is funded by the Department of Children and Youth Affairs UBU- Your Place, Your Space targeted youth funding scheme, through Kerry Education and Training Board (KLETB). The project is a new funded targeted project, which aims to develop services in ETB areas, where a gap in service provision has been identified, specifically for young people ages 10-24 years who have identified needs additional to the general population. The aim of the service is to give young people an opportunity to overcome adversity and reach their full potential in a safe and supportive environment.

The successful candidate will work as part of the West Iveragh Service team and will have responsibility for delivering a service to targeted young people on the peninsula in Cahersiveen, Waterville and the surrounding areas. The project will provide a range of interventions/services, particularly targeted at young people at risk, including the development of community based youth groups, the operation of intensive group work programmes, individual programmes, special interest preventative programmes and therapeutic interventions to support young people (10 – 24 years) in the area.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

The successful candidate will be employed by Foróige and will be given a contract of employment. It must be understood however, that if the position becomes redundant at any time during the period of the contract or if the funding for the post is discontinued or a post holder fails to perform satisfactorily, employment may be terminated.

The duties of the Project Worker shall be notified by the board of Foróige and/or its Chief Executive or nominee. These duties will include:
